Part C: Experience

Experience requirements

For licence in the class of refrigerated air-conditioning work, you need the following experience:

- an apprenticeship and two years experience (after your apprenticeship); or
- six years of experience (if you have not completed an apprenticeship)

If you need more than one employer or supervisor to confirm your experience and the total years of experience required, please provide additional copies of the employer/supervisor confirmation of experience.

Employer/Supervisor confirmation of experience

The following sections must be completed by the referee and accompanies the refrigerated air-conditioning licence application form.

To be a referee you should be licensed in refrigerated air-conditioning work. You must have directly supervised the applicant carrying out the work listed in the reference.

Use this form to tell us about fire protection work that the applicant carried out under your supervision.

BPC uses the referee report to help determine whether an applicant meets the experience requirement to be licensed in refrigerated air-conditioning work. We may contact you to confirm the information you provide.

Privacy Collection Notice

How the BPC uses and discloses your personal information.

The Building and Plumbing Commission (BPC) is collecting your personal information (including any images or photographs and any and all details provided in this form), to process your application. If you do not provide all or any part of the information requested in this form, the BPC may be unable to process and subsequently grant your application.

The BPC may also use such information for the following purposes:

- (a) To enable the BPC to meet its statutory obligations, functions and perform its operational requirements.
- (b) Researching and assessing the merit and impact of proposed regulatory reforms and to assist in the development and delivery of services by the BPC (whether to you personally or a member of the public).
- (c) Law enforcement by the BPC or other regulatory bodies, including prosecutions or disciplinary action against you if required.
- (d) Maintaining disciplinary and licensing and registration registers for building and plumbing practitioners (published on the BPC's website).
- (e) Such other purposes as required by law or authorised under the privacy legislation.

The BPC may also share your personal information with third parties including, but not limited to, different business units within the BPC, the Building Appeals Board, Consumer Affairs Victoria, our insurer, other regulators (both in Victoria and interstate), and the BPC's staff and/or service providers who need to know such information to perform services for the BPC.

The BPC will only disclose your personal information to a third party claiming to act on your behalf (for example, your solicitor or interpreter) with your prior written consent. You can request access to the personal information which the BPC holds about you. If you become aware that personal information the BPC holds about you is not accurate, complete or up to date, you can ask the BPC to correct it.

By providing information to the BPC using this form, you are deemed to have acknowledged and consented to the BPC using and disclosing your personal information as set out in this Statement.

The BPC's full Privacy Policy and information about how to contact the BPC is available at www.bpc.vic.gov.au/privacy.
